ESHOLT The Woolpack

Address: Main Street, Esholt, Bradford, BD17 7QZ

Tel: 01274 809495

Pub is in the heart of this small village called Esholt, and was the home to the ITV soap Emmerdale. Dogs are welcome on leads. The food is gorgeous and with big plate fulls your never left hungry. There are real ales and a local guest ale for you to chose from, while your dog gets a glass of ice to keep themselves entertained! In the winter the fire is lit and gives the pub the home from home feel. The resident dog called Dylan can often be found sat at the top of the stairs keeping watch. There are some large woods at the back of the pub to help walk off your dinner, and you could have a look round the home of Emmerdale village!

Address: 7 Cuncliffe Road, Ilkley, LS29 9DZ

Tel: 01943 608888

Web: www.marketowntaverns.co.uk

Do all the Market Town Tavern chain let dogs in? This one does and they provide dog bowls and water and some offer "Doggy Menu"! Their human food is fab and not your bog standard pub grub. Other pubs include The Narrow Boat, 36-38 Victoria Street, Skipton, BD23 1JE. The chain includes total 10 pubs dotted round West Yorkshire.

ILKLEY Flying Duck

Address: 16 Church Street, Ilkley, LS29 9DR

Tel: 01943 609587

Web: www.facebook.com/FlyingDuck.Ilkley

Often stop off here for a pint of Wharfedale Blonde - this is a great pub that other landlords should look to as a bench mark. The beer is well priced and of great quality - it is brewed here I guess! However there are plenty of guest ales on to. The area is welcoming and fresh - the staff are friendly and the locals are chatty. Doggy treats in a jar on the bar. Best beer and possibly best pub in Yorkshire.
